

The 2019 OGG Holiday Party
Recounted by Sharon Dunham
(To the tune of "Do You Hear What I Hear?")

Said the guild folks at the Gerrard home; Do you see what I see?
Lots of glass, chocolates and a gnome; Please don't steal what I see!
The beef and sweets started all the fun, with a whistle, it all had begun
Take a number and hope that it's "one".

Said Mel, "I think it's chocolate", I believe; Do you see what I see?
Italian cookies and a glass batik; Don't you steal what I see!

The quilt, the bowl, and earrings were all picked
The first dozen were all well behaved
'Til the pate de verre somebody craved! (Just kidding, S!)

Said the group, I'm seeing double with a nod; Do you see what I see?
Double vitrograph and the same with the rods; Do you see what I see?

The skill performed using couple's strategy
To win both of these items and more
Kate and Carl tag teamed well for the score!

Said of Suzanne's talents, sewing so devine; do you hear what I hear?
Aprons and a lap quilt (briefly mine); Do you hear what I hear?

The steals, the steals, the chocolates and the stand
It was hard keeping up with the deals
With the last of the evenings big steals!

Said this author to our party hosts; thanks for keeping this alive
OGG tradition we can boast still is strong and will thrive!

Our friends, our friends gather as we do
We'll be back next year, but will you?
Looking forward to seeing just who!

Peace to All in the coming year from Sharon Dunham
